

RIGHT TO CONTEST ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER

The issuance of this Order represents a final agency decision. If you wish, you may request a contested case hearing before the S.C. Administrative Law Court on this matter. Such a request must be made in compliance with the Rules of Procedure for the S.C. Administrative Law Court. Pursuant to Rule 11, the request must be made within thirty (30) days after notice of this decision at the following address:

Clerk's Office
South Carolina Administrative Law Court
1205 Pendleton Street, Suite 224
Columbia, S.C. 29201

Furthermore, pursuant to Rule 71, the S.C. Administrative Law Court requires that a party requesting a contested case hearing must submit a filing fee in the amount of $150.00 made payable to the S.C. Administrative Law Court.

Finally, at the same time that you submit your written request to the S.C. Administrative Law Court, you must serve a written copy of your request for a contested case hearing on each party, including, but not limited to, the Department. A copy of your request, should you decide to file one, must be mailed to the Department at the following address:

General Counsel
S.C. Department of Consumer Affairs
P.O. Box 5757
Columbia, S.C. 29250-5757

Further information may be obtained by contacting the S.C. Administrative Law Court Clerk of Court at (803) 734-0550, or you may obtain the forms and rules from the Court's website at <https://scalcn.net/>.

RIGHT TO SEEK RELIEF FROM SUBPOENA

South Carolina Code Ann. § 1-23-600 (G) provides:

(G) Notwithstanding another provision of law, the Administrative Law Court has jurisdiction to review and enforce an administrative process issued by an agency or by a department of the executive branch of government, as defined in Section 1-30-10, such as a subpoena, administrative search warrant, cease and desist order, or other similar administrative order or process. A department or agency of the executive branch of government authorized by law to seek an administrative process may apply to the Administrative Law Court to issue or enforce an administrative process. A party aggrieved by an administrative process issued by a department or agency of the executive branch of government may apply to the Administrative Law Court for relief from the process as provided in the Rules of the Administrative Law Court.

The Administrative Law Court is located in:

Edgar A. Brown Building
1205 Pendleton St., Suite 224
Columbia, SC 29201

You may seek further information by contacting the Administrative Law Court at the address above, by telephone at (803)734-0550, or through their website at <https://scal.c.net/>
