FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SCDCA to Host Identity Theft Twitter Chat

Columbia, SC....The South Carolina Department of Consumer Affairs (SCDCA) will host a Twitter chat on identity theft from 12:00-1:00pm on Friday, March 29, 2013. To participate, consumers must have a Twitter account and should tweet their questions using the hashtag #SCDCAsecure.

This event comes two days after SCDCA's debut chat for college and university students. "Hosting Twitter chats is the most logical next step in SCDCA's social media initiative," said Carri Grube Lybarker, Administrator of SCDCA. "This forum provides a creative, cost effective way for our agency to connect with South Carolina consumers."

Follow @SCDCA on Twitter to get the most up to date information on identity theft and other pertinent consumer topics. Consumers can also find more information on identity theft by visiting our Identity Theft Resources page.
