RE: Notice of Data Breach
Please read this entire letter

Dear [REDACTED],

We write to inform you of a data security incident that may have impacted some of your personal information. SelectBlinds is an online retailer that offers custom window coverings. We are notifying you of a recent security incident involving the username and password that you use to access your account on the SelectBlinds website. We take the security of your personal information very seriously, and we sincerely regret having to share this news with you.

Beginning on or about January 7, 2024, an unauthorized third party embedded malware on the SelectBlinds website that allowed data scraping on logins on the check-out page. We became aware of the incident on September 28, 2024, and, following our incident response process, immediately launched an investigation with the assistance of external cybersecurity experts to minimize incident impact, determine the scope of the incident, and assess what data may have been involved. We completed our investigation on October 10, 2024. Through our investigation, we learned that your www.selectblinds.com username and password was affected if you logged in to the check-out page only on the SelectBlinds website while making or considering a purchase.

SelectBlinds takes the security of all information in our systems very seriously, and we want to assure you that we've already taken steps to prevent a recurrence. We quickly contained the incident and eradicated the malware and elements of unauthorized access. Among other actions, we have increased monitoring, further improved security controls, and reinforced our systems. In addition, out of an abundance of caution, we have temporarily locked your www.selectblinds.com user account. The next time you go to log in, you will be prompted to securely change your password.

We recommend that you review the additional information below, which contains other important steps you can take to protect your personal information. We also encourage you to change your passwords on any online accounts where the same log-in credentials are used and to monitor such accounts for unauthorized activity.

If you would like to request any additional information about this incident, please contact us at 1-866-586-7032. Protecting your information is important to us. We appreciate your patience and understanding.

Sincerely,

SelectBlinds

Additional Important Information

Monitoring: You should always remain vigilant for incidents of fraud and identity theft by reviewing payment card account statements and monitoring your credit reports for suspicious or unusual activity and immediately report any suspicious activity or incidents of identity theft. You have the right to obtain or file a police report. You can contact the Federal Trade Commission for more information on preventing identity theft.

Federal Trade Commission, Consumer Response Center
600 Pennsylvania Ave, NW Washington, DC 20580, 1-877-IDTHEFT (438-4338) www.identitytheft.gov

Credit Reports: You may obtain a copy of your credit report, free of charge, whether or not you suspect any unauthorized activity on your account. You may obtain a free copy of your credit report from each of the three nationwide credit reporting agencies. To order your free credit report, please visit www.annualcreditreport.com, or call toll-free at 1-877-322-8228. You can also order your annual free credit report by mailing a completed Annual Credit Report Request Form (available at www.consumer.ftc.gov/articles/0155-free-credit-reports) to: Annual Credit Report Request Service, P.O. Box 105281, Atlanta, GA, 30348-5281.

Fraud Alerts: You have the right to place fraud alerts with the three credit bureaus by phone and online with Equifax (https://assets.equifax.com/assets/personal/Fraud_Alert_Request_Form.pdf), Experian (www.experian.com/fraud/center.html) or Transunion (www.transunion.com/fraud-victim-resource/place-fraud-alert). A fraud alert tells creditors to follow certain procedures, including contacting you, before they open any new accounts or change your existing accounts. For that reason, placing a fraud alert can protect you, but also may delay you when you seek to obtain credit. Initial fraud alerts last for one year. Victims of identity theft can also get an extended fraud alert for seven years. The phone numbers for all three credit bureaus are at the bottom of this page.

Security Freeze: You also have the right to place a security freeze on your credit report. A security freeze is intended to prevent credit, loans, and services from being approved in your name without your consent. To place a security freeze on your credit report, you need to make a request to each consumer reporting agency by visiting their websites below or by mail. In order to place the security freeze for yourself, your spouse, or a minor under the age of 16, you will need to provide your name, address for the past two years, date of birth, Social Security number, proof of identity and proof of address as requested by the credit reporting company. After receiving your freeze request, each credit reporting company will send you a confirmation letter containing a unique PIN (personal identification number) or password, which will be required to lift the freeze, which you can do either temporarily or permanently. It is free to place, lift, or remove a security freeze.
