FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SCDCA RETURNS TO SPARTANBURG ON AUGUST 27, 2008

Columbia, SC... ...The South Carolina Department of Consumer Affairs (SCDCA) will visit the Spartanburg community on Wednesday, August 27, 2008, to handle consumer complaints and questions. Regional SCDCA outreach coordinator Patty Guthrie will pay a visit to the Irwin Conference Room at the Spartanburg County Public Library located at 151 Church Street, Spartanburg, SC 29306. Consumers may come with questions or complaints regarding a business between 10:00 a.m. and 12:00 p.m. Individuals are encouraged to bring documentation with them.

Ms. Guthrie will also have additional materials available on various scams including telemarketing pitches, prize scams, and online auctions. “Deceptive offers and deals come in all shapes and sizes, so consumers have to be particularly careful these days. Especially with all the automation and online activity, bank account numbers can quickly be compromised, putting the consumer in a very difficult position,” said Ms. Guthrie.

The Department will continue to visit the Spartanburg community on a regular basis. Locations will be announced monthly. The Department services the entire state via telephone and online help. Specific questions and concerns from the Spartanburg community may be addressed to Patty Guthrie. Appointments are available upon request. Ms. Guthrie may be reached at 864.490.3267.

About the South Carolina Department of Consumer Affairs:

Established by the Consumer Protection code in 1974, The South Carolina Department of Consumer Affairs represents the interests of South Carolina Consumers. Our mission is to protect consumers from inequities in the marketplace through advocacy, mediation, enforcement and education.
